

PT Bali Towerindo Sentra Tbk ("Company") realizes that business continuity cannot be separated from various risks that are influenced by internal and external factors. The Company views risk management as an important aspect in ensuring the continuity of its business activities, therefore the Company implements a systematic and integrated risk management policy within the Company's organizational structure. The Company always strives to establish and develop strong risk management, implementation of good corporate governance practices, and compliance with regulations, which of course are supported by the commitment of management to manage the Company's activities with the principle of prudence to achieve good performance.